Notice regarding Termination of the Company's Sponsored American Depositary Receipts (ADR) Program

This is to advise that Kyocera Corporation (the "Company") resolved at its meeting of the Board of Directors held today to terminate the sponsored American Depositary Receipts ("ADR") program as described below.

1. Reason for the Termination

The Company maintained the sponsored ADR program even after its delisting of ADRs from the New York Stock Exchange in 2018 to enable the trade of the Company's ADRs over-the-counter market. However, taking into consideration the fact that the volume of trade by foreign investors in the Japanese securities markets is becoming larger in these years, etc. the Company has decided to terminate the sponsored ADR program.

2. Date of Termination

June 5, 2026 (U.S. Eastern Standard Time) (scheduled)

3. Procedures Hereafter

The schedule and procedure for termination of the program shall be separately advised by Citibank N.A., as the Depository, to the ADR holders.

4. For inquiries regarding the Company's ADRs
