Notice Relating to Revision of Consolidated Financial Forecasts and Distribution of Interim Dividend for the Year Ending March 31, 2026 (“fiscal 2026”)

This is to advise you that Kyocera Corporation (the “Company”) has adopted resolutions at a meeting of its Board of Directors held on October 30, 2025 in respect of revision of its consolidated financial forecasts for fiscal 2026, which were originally announced on May 14, 2025 and distribution of interim dividend for fiscal 2026 as set forth below, taking into consideration the performance for the six months ended September 30, 2025 (“ the first half”) and the business environment forecast for the three months ending December 31, 2025 (“the third quarter”) and onward.

1. Revision of consolidated financial forecasts

(2) Reason for the revision to consolidated financial forecasts for fiscal 2026

During the first half, the yen depreciated as compared to our estimated exchange rates and the impact of U.S. tariff policies remained limited as compared to the initial estimate. During the three months ending December 31, 2025 and onward, the uncertainty in the global economy is expected to continue, because of the tariff policies of the United States and the instability of politics in various countries, etc. Despite the above outlook, in light of the situation up to the end of the first half, Kyocera has revised its consolidated financial forecast for fiscal 2026 as set forth above.

2. Distribution of interim dividend

The Company determined the amount of its interim dividend as set forth below, pursuant to its basic profit allocation policy.

	Determined amount	Most recent forecast (Published on May 14, 2025)	(Reference) Interim dividend for previous fiscal year
